ENITED Excellent.C Model®

ENITED Coordination Solution®

GOOD Choice | Transparency guaranteed.

Following our business principles, we have created a unique open-book and truly transparent remuneration system.

Our Open book model is based upon one benchmark only: our working time.

It is the only method to define and evaluate our services (our expertise, our knowledge and our experience) as well as our project involvement in a professional and fair way.

Many agencies still apply the common commission scheme to generate their revenues through the volume of a business (e.g. number of attendees, budget size, volume of third-party services, etc.), leading sometimes to great discrepancies between price and value of their provided services.

In contrast, our Open book model always provides good and transparent value for money, creating additional key benefits for you, the event organiser.

- ✓ Clear division between any third party (supplier) costs and our agency fee
- ✓ Any third-party costs will be charged to you, at net costs (no premiums/ commissions/ surcharges)
- ✓ Open and transparent budgeting
- ✓ More flexible financial management
- ✓ No volume or turnover based attitude
- ✓ Independent of any third party (supplier)
- ✓ Full decision-making and controlling authority for the organiser
- ✓ Truly participant-oriented performance (no unnecessary booking or cancellation charges, fair payment & cancellation policies, etc.)
- ✓ Additional potential revenues for the organiser's budget, from negotiated commissions, premiums or discounts from any third-party supplier (e.g. hotels, event venue, social programme, etc.).

GOOD Places | In more than 40 Destinations.

We're at home in Vienna and the whole of Austria, but we can support you all over the world. With years of international experience behind us, we can also offer you our regional dedication and expertise.
